Minutes of meeting – Tuesday, May 11, 2021
Lake Charter Township PSB

the end of the year to compare salaries.

Fireworks/Festivals: Chief Shawn Martin stated that he reached out to several area police departments. The Sheriff's Department, Lincoln Township Police department, and Michigan State Police are the only ones that will assist with the fireworks. Chief Shawn Martin stated that there is never enough help and he is concerned for the high number of people attending the event especially with surrounding areas not having fireworks.

Accident Fund: Chairperson Bob Clark stated that we should continue with the way things have been, and look at the possibility of the chief working with the Lake Township Fire Department/Medical First Responders. Possibly compensating him from the fire department budget.

Chief's Report: Chief Shawn Martin stated that he has not posted any positions for employment. He stated that he will work on it and have something available for the September meeting.

Civil Forfeiture: Chief Shawn Martin gave an update on the civil forfeitures.

Officer Training: Chief Shawn Martin gave an updated sheet of the officer's trainings and upcoming trainings for 2021.

Vehicle Mileage and repairs: Chief Shawn Martin gave an update on the vehicle mileage and repairs. Vehicle 79 is still at Lakeshore Auto body.

Calls for Service: We are currently at 887 calls for service. We have 24 FOIAs as of May 1st.
